Sympathy for the Young Men of Nashville-Meeting of the Young Ladies of the City. At a large meeting of young ladies, held at the residence of Mrs. ----, on Church Street, on Monday, 26th inst., on motion, Mise E- was called to the Chair and Miss Fappointed Secretary. The Chairman briefly explained the object of the meeting, which, however, being fully set forth in the Preamble and Resolutions below, are omitted.

WHEREAS, A large number of the young men of the City of Nashville, for reasons best known to themselves, and certainly not appreciated by the community at large, are remaining at home during this most arduous struggle for the independence of our beloved South.

Resolved, That we tender to the aforesaid young men, our sincere and heartfelt congratulations that so far as THEY are concern ed, "Nobody is hurt," and that if we may judge of their future by the past, we can assure them they are in no very immediate danger.

Resolved. That we hereby pledge ourselves to protect these young men "at all hazards and to the last extremity;" and that we earnestly solicit the aid of all the women, old and young, the aged men and the little boys and girls, in this mission of mercy. . Resolved, That we chronicle with pleasure the fact, that two Companies, of our sex, have already been organized in this vicinity for the ostensible purpose before mentioned, and that we bid them God speed in their good work. Resolved. That we meet at such time and place as the President may direct, to form a Military Company, the better to effect the object which burns so intensely in every heart here, namely, the adequate protection of the young men; and that they be requested to cease visiting us, as we are laboring for their good and do not desire to be disturbed, however great may be the pleasure of entertaining so much of bravery and chivalry. Resolved. That should we fail in our endeavors to procure such arms, as the importance of the subject so much demands, that we present the young men of our city, of the home squadron, each with a hoop skirt, believing that not even Wilson's Zouaves would harm a hair of their heads when thus pro-

We take pleasure in saying that ALECK WRIGHT, who keeps a Drinking House under the Commercial Hotel, Cedar Street, has on hand a lot of the finest Cfgars ever imported into Nashville, and a stock of the choicest Liquors in the market, Blockade or no blockade, it is all the same to him. This Spring is situated on the East side of Cumberland river, at the end of the Wire Bridge.

THE DRINK, 5 CENTS-Payment in ANALYSIS. Carbonate of Iron, Carbonate of Magnesia, Carbonate of Lime, Sulphate of Magnesia, Sulphats of Lime, Muriate of Magnesia, Muriate of Soda.

The specific gravity of fresh water was 1.01222*—distilled water being taken as the standard.

I understand that the water has already been beneficial to several invalids. It will be beneficial to a greater degree when taken fresh from the Spring. I should pronounce it stimulant and tonic, and adapted, consequently, to cases of debility, accompanied with an anomic condition of the systen, and contra-indicated in plethoric and inflamatory states.

RICHARD O. CURREY.

There is no doubt that the Spring kept by Mr. W. Denn at the Eastern end of the Suspension Bridge is good Chalybeate water, and that it is adapted to many diseases of debility.
